

Terrien family history.

The charts that follow are the 'maps' which describe the decendancy of the Terrien family from our immigrant ancestor, Pierre Terrien and his spouse Gabriel Mignot in Quebec, through the children of Raphael Terrien and Florence Albers. Raphael Terrien was the grandson of Louis Terrien (I) and Anastasia Gendron who emigrated from Quebec to Brown County, Wisconsin in 1866. The list of Terrien ancestors in this line appear as follows:

Terrien Decendancy

Andre Terrien (m:1640) Marie Faucauld

Pierre Terrien (m:1670) Gabrielle Mignot

Andre Terrien (m:1710) Marie Charland

Barthelemi Terrien (m:1746) Brigit Savard

Joseph Marie Terrien (m:1777) Marie Gagnon

Pierre Terrien (m:1820) Marguerite Langlois

Louis Terrien (I) (m:1844) Anastasie Gendron

Louis Terrien (II) (m:1889) Nellie Seymour

Raphael Terrien (m:1919) Florence Albers

Conrad Terrien (m:1952) Kathleen Fitzgerald

Richard Terrien (m:1978) Mary Walker

Albers Chart 1

Because of the rapidly expanding list of ancestors which occurs over time, each generation is traced within individual charts. Those charts follow the family history of the mother of each Terrien generation. Note that the later generations (Gendron and Couture) require multiple charts to trace the ancestry of each woman over time. An explanatory page precedes the multiple charts for both the Gendron and the Couture family. A small version of the Terrien decendancy shown above appears on each of the charts for reference.

These charts were compiled by Rick Terrien. I am the grandson of Ray Terrien and Florence Albers. My father is Conrad Terrien, the first child of Ray and Florence.

Gendron family history.

The Gendron family in many ways represents the history of St. Anne de la Perade. It was in this parish that Louis Terrien (I) and Anastasia Gendron were married. After several years of farming at nearby St. Casimir, Louis Terrien (I) and Anastasia Gendron gathered their 13 children and emigrated from Quebec, bound for Brown County, Wisconsin. Shortly thereafter, they had one final child - number 14 - our ancestor Louis Terrien (II)

Our Gendron family charts follow this cover page. As the time increases the number of different charts required to include all families also increases. Rene Gendron (B:1613) and his spouse Catherine Blain (b:1621) are definitely known to us as ancestors. Prior to Rene, the names listed above are probable, but not yet proven. The charts listed below begin with Rene Gendron.

Gendron Chart #1 includes the first 3 Gendron generations known to us. (From Renee Gendron and Catherine Blain (m: 1642 at St. Goddard, Rouen, France), through Jean Gendron and Marie Anne Prinseau (m: 1696)

Gendron Chart #2 traces the family of Marie Madeline Tessier, spouse of Michael Gendron (I)

Gendron Chart #3 traces the family history of Marie Angelique Courtois, spouse of Michael Gendron (II) (m: 1753).

Gendron Chart #4 traces the family history of Madeline Leduc, spouse of Michael Gendron (III) (m: 1782)

Gendron Chart #5 traces the family history of Marie Anne Vallee, spouse of Pierre Gendron (m: 1831)

Couture family history.

The Couture family has a long and varied history in North America. Our connection to the Couture family is through Nellie Seymour, baptised Helen Couture. Since the famous immigrant Guillaume Couture, many of his descendants created new 'dit' names or family surnames. Our Seymour family follows in this tradition. Here is how our Couture decendancy in North America appears:

Guillaume Couture	(m: at Rouen)	Madeline Mallet
Guillaume Couture	(m:1649)	Anne Esmard
Jean Baptiste Couture	(m:1686)	Anne Marette
Alexis Couture	(m:1721)	M. Madeline Morin
Andre Couture	(m:1766)	M. Francoise Picard
Alexis Couture	(m:1795)	Thecle Lamarre

Our Couture family charts follow this cover page. As the time increases the number of different charts required to include all families also increases.

Couture Chart #1 includes the first 6 Couture generations known to us. (From Guillaume Couture and Madeline Mallet at Rouen, France through Alexis Couture and Thecle Lamarre (m:1795))

Couture Chart #2 traces the family of Josette Terrien, spouse of Joseph Couture (m:1806)

Couture Charts #3 and #4 trace the family history of Louise Bourdeau, spouse of Joseph Couture (m:1831). Because of the time involved, separate charts are shown for each of Louise Bourdeau's parents. Couture Chart #3 follows her father Pierre Boudreau. Couture Chart #4 follows her mother Marie Louise Lecuyer.

Couture Charts #5, #6, #7 and #8 trace the family history of Elsie Duaine, spouse of Felix Seymour dit Couture. Elsie's parents were Bruno Duaine and Emerence Turcotte (m:1840) Couture Chart #5 follows Bruno Duaine's father Antoine Lemaitre. Couture Chart #6 follows Bruno Duaine's mother Marie Lemaitre. Couture Chart #7 follows Emerence Turcotte's father Toussaint Turcotte. Couture Chart #8 follows Emerence Turcotte's mother Therese Allie.

Louis Terrien (II) Couture chart 2

The family history of Josette Terrien; mother of Joseph Couture

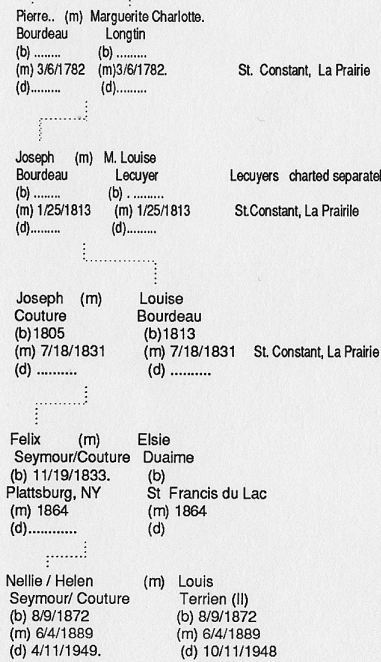

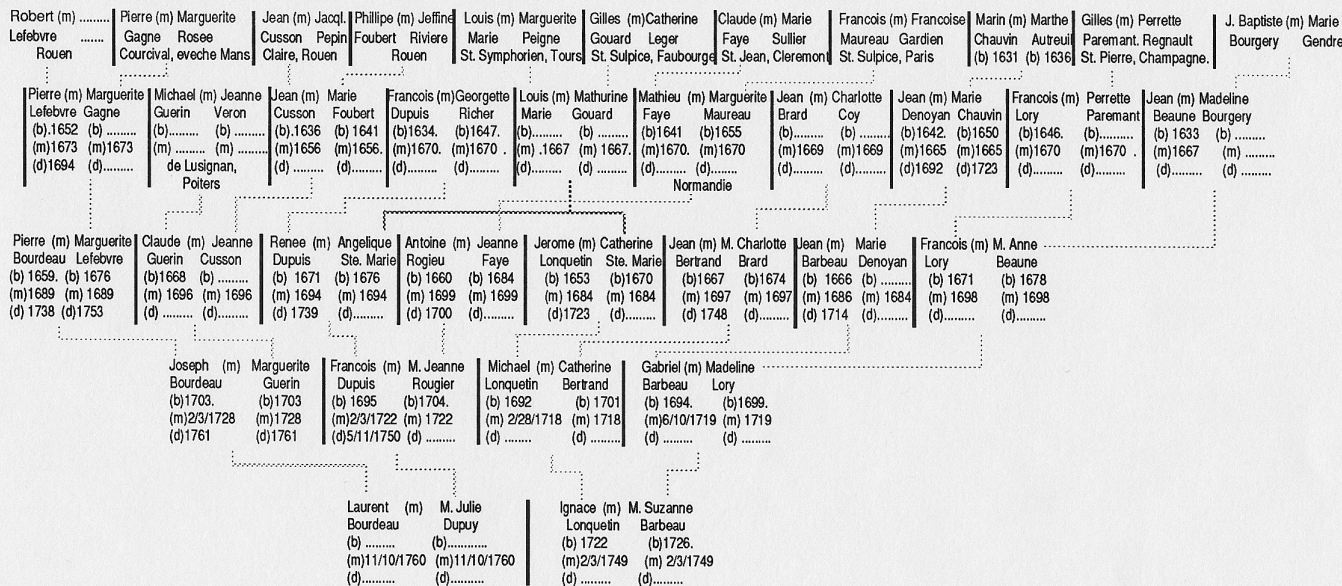

There is a difference in the records for the parents of Jean Baptiste Brien dit Sansregret, spouse of Marie Anne Baillargeon. Drouin and Tanguay indicate different parents. Drouin believes this Jean Baptiste to be our immigrant ancestor; however, Mssr. Tanguay believes him to be the son of the immigrant Louis Brien. Tanguay has been more reliable in the past and his set of records seems more reliable in this case. This chart follows Tanguay.

This chart is based on information located in the Tanguay volumes. There is a difference however, between Tanguay and Drouin. Drouin shows the parents of Joseph Turcotte (married on 9/22/1760 to Catherine Dupaul) to be Joseph Turcotte and M. Josette Audet. Tanguay shows him to be the son of Antoine Turcotte and Agathe Arseneau. The resulting genealogy yields significantly different results. I've kept the Drouin version, but I feel that in this (and most other) cases Tanguay is the more accurate. Tanguay's Turcotte ancestors have been included in the Quebec immigrant catalog that accompanies these charts.

Albers Family History

revised 6/15/1994

The Albers family lived at Schotteheide, which was one of the hamlets making up the village of Frasselt, Germany. Frasselt is 1 mile west, southwest of Cleve, a regional center on the Netherlands border in northwest Germany. In 1888 there were 475 people living in Frasselt. Inferring numbers from prior years, it would appear that Schotteheide must have been home to no more than 200 people in the mid 1800s, most of them from either the Albers or Klosters families.

The name of their hamlet, Schotteheide, translates as 'Scottish Moors'. There seems to have been at least two prominent Albers families from Schotteheide. Our Gerhard and his wife Joanna each came from one of these families.

Henry and his younger sister Joanna (born 1857) emigrated from Germany to Brown County. Others from the family may also have come to the US, but this isn't yet known.

(Gerhard & Joanna's marriage records, as well as birth records for Henry and his sister Joanna are available through the LDS church: tape #0907592, which lists vital records for this area from 1835-1876)

Joanna Albers' parents were Johannes Albers (b:1799, d: 5/6/1866) and Helena Albers, both of Schotteheide
